THOUGHTS

Remind them to be submis-
sive to rulers and authorities,
to be obedient, to be ready
for any honest work, to speak
evil of no one, to avoid quarreling, to be gentle, and to show perfect courtesy
toward all men.—Titus 3:1,2.

Gentleness is a divine trait:
nothing is so strong as gentle-
ness, and nothing is so gentle
as real strength.—Ralph W.
Sockman, American clergyman.

The spirit of man is more important than mere physical strength, and the spiritual
fiber of a nation than its wealth.—Dwight D. Eisenhower.

U.S. to Push Nuclear Sub Expansion

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Clark M. Clifford has set the stage for a possible expansion of the U.S. nuclear attack submarine force
with his approval of a new su-
perfast model.

Clifford told a news conference Thursday he has ordered
the top scientific and technical
brains to work on the vessel, understood to carry a price tag of around $185 million.

This is $100 million more than the latest Sturgeon class atomic
sub whose mission is to hunt
and kill enemy underwater
craft.

The authorization was a partial victory for Vice Adm. Hyman G. Rickover, the Navy's nuclear expert, who was pushing the Pentagon for advanced American submarines to meet
the growing Soviet undersea
force.

But as Clifford announced he had authorized the new sub Rickover helped design, he left
open the possibility another Rickover favorite—a superquiet
sub—may get the ax.

This submarine, which could
track enemy vessels with great
stealth, was approved last year
but the Pentagon has been threatening to abandon it to save money.

Rickover, a congressional favorite, has been arguing
through Capitol Hill committees
for the quiet sub, but the outlook
has dimmed. Clifford said a decision on its fate will be forthcoming in the next few weeks.

The approved sub—Clifford
didn't say how much faster it would be than present 30-knot
vessels—is slated for full budgeting in 1970, defense officials said. Long-lead-time parts are sought under the fiscal 1969
budget now before Congress.

The authorized nuclear attack
force stands at 69 submarines,
about half of which have been
built, with the other half either
under construction or approved.

Work on the last four is scheduled to begin in 1969 and 1970,
and defense officials said the high-speed version will be one of the last two models.

Officials say this leaves open
the possibility that after 1970 the 69-ship ceiling might be raised
to permit construction of more
of the new superfast subs, highly advanced over the latest Sturgeon class, to maintain a check on the Soviet submarine
fleet.

Congress has been prodding
the Pentagon to make certain
the United States maintains qualitative if not quantitative
superiority over the Soviet Union in this field.

Attack submarines are gaining in importance as the Soviets
move to deploy more atomic
subs capable of launching long-
range ballistic missiles.

The Soviets currently have more than 400 submarines, including an unspecified number
of missile-launching types, plus
nuclear-powered and diesel-
driven attack craft.

The U.S. sub force stands at 146 which includes 41 polaris
missile boats—nothing more than nuclear-powered launch
platforms—and 105 attack submarines, two-thirds of which are diesel vessels built during World War II.

Clifford also told reporters he
is going to Vietnam Saturday,
his first trip to the war zone as defense chief.

Along with Joint Chiefs of Staff Chairman Army Gen.
Earle G. Wheeler, Clifford will be conducting talks with battlefield commanders on how to deal with what the defense secretary said was "the possibility of a new offensive on the part of enemy forces in July or possibly August."

Clifford said intelligence reports show the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong have built up their strength to eight or more divisions below the demilitarized
zone.

In spite of this increase, Clifford said the restricted, though heavy bombing of North Vietnam has been "quite an effective operation."

The enemy pays "an increasingly high cost—as they go
through the panhandle south of the 20th parallel," he told newsmen.

odds-on favorite to win the support of the entire delegation because of the bloc-vote rule.

He could get the Arkansas
votes simply by hanging on to the 21 delegates who prefer him
or are leaning toward him and
by picking up just 11 of the 40
delegates who are uncommitted
or did not respond in the poll.

The only delegate who stated
a clear-cut preference for Mc-Carthy asked that his name
not be used, but he made it
plain that Humphrey also was acceptable to him.

"Vice President Humphrey is
a brilliant, talented man and
would be wholly acceptable to me as our nominee," said the delegate. "But the gravity of the Vietnam war demands a fresh position which the Vice President has not yet offered."

"Perhaps at long last
idealism will have its year,"
the delegate said.

But one former office-seeker
saw McCarthy's Vietnam war
position in a different light—
as, in fact, the senator's only significantly emphasized position.

"McCarthy is a very respectable candidate," said his delegate. "But in my opinion his campaign is too concentrated on
the single issue of opposition to the war."

Besides the 21 delegates preferring Humphrey or leaning
his way, three of the seven un-
committed respondents expressed the belief that the Vice President will win the support
of the Arkansas delegation and also will capture the party's presidential nomination.

One former office-holder who endorsed Humphrey "of the two candidates," said reports
that McCarthy told Michigan
Democrats he might back Republican presidential hopeful
Nelson A. Rockefeller eliminated
McCarthy as the favorite of
"any reasonable Democrat."

"Some of these pseudo, misguided liberals, not true liberals, remind me of a spoiled boy
who owns the ball in a sandlot
baseball game," said his delegate. "If he can't run the whole
show, he'll take his ball and go home."

ballot election day.

Humphrey said Vice President
Hubert H. Humphrey urged that the United States stand ready in
the coming decade to reestab-
lish contacts with Red China,
though chances of improved relations "are not good."

McCarthy: Sen. Eugene J.
McCarthy charged the administration with not doing enough to see that the nation's poor were properly fed. A Department of Agriculture spokesman said in reply the Democratic contender
has never before shown any interest in the problem.

Republicans: Richard M. Nix-
on, member of a golf club with
no Negro or Jewish members,
said he opposes such policies
"out I believe in working for a change from the inside." Gov.
Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York campaigned in his own
state Thursday, moving today
to Baltimore and Miami to sell
himself to GOP National Convention delegates.

Court Round Is Lost by Rep. Powell

By MALCOLM STEPHENSON
Associated Press Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The 1966
conviction of former Rep. Adam Clayton Powell on a charge of
criminal contempt of court,
which led to a 30-day jail sentence and a $500 fine, has been upheld by a three-to-two vote of the Appellate Division of the State Supreme Court.

The ousted congressman's
lawyer, Henry R. Williams, said
after the ruling Thursday that
no decision had been made yet
on whether to take the case to the Court of Appeals, New York
State's highest tribunal.

The 59-year-old Powell, who has been elected as a Democratic congressman from Harlem
for more than 20 years, was reported to be on Bimini, his favorite island retreat in the Bahamas.

Thursday's ruling came after eight years of litigation over Powell's failure to pay a defamation judgment won by a 71-
year-old Harlem widow who Powell called a "bag woman"
— collector of graft for police-
men—on a 1960 television program. It apparently made Powell subject to arrest if he came into New York State without making a further appeal and obtaining a parole from a judge of the Court of Appeals.

Garrison Hurls Charge at CIA

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Dist.
Atty. Jim Garrison said that his office has exchanged information with the intelligence agency
of a foreign country "That successfully penetrated the assassination operation" against President John F. Kennedy, the Times-Picayune reported today.

According to the newspaper
report, Garrison said that "the great amount of detailed information" he received from the foreign country verifies his statements that Kennedy was assassinated "by elements of the Central Intelligence Agency."

Garrison declined to identify the country but he did say that it is in Europe and is "a foreign power that militarily is on friendly terms with the United States," the newspaper reported.

foreign intelligence agency because of indications of another
"CIA-inspired" campaign in magazines to discredit his investigation.

The paper said Garrison referred specifically to an article
in the New Yorker magazine
dated July 13. The article by Edward Jay Epstein, a critic of the Warren Commission, attacks Garrison's investigation of the assassination of Kennedy in Dallas in November 1963.

Epstein said in the 25,000-
word piece, "In the years I have been studying Garrison's investigation and have had access to his office, the only evidence I have seen or heard about that could connect Clay Shaw with
the assassination has been fraudulent—some devised by Garrison himself and some cyni-cally called from criminals or
the emotionally unstable."

The Times-Picayune story
gave this account:
Garrison said a representative of his office spent about a month with "the top men of their (the foreign country's) intelligence agency" and returned about a month ago. He did not identify the representative.

Nominee to Court Flayed by Senator

WASHINGTON (AP) — The
leading opponent of President
Johnson's Supreme Court nomi-
nations say the two appointees
may have been part of "a fla-
grant disregard of the constitutional doctrine of separation of powers."

Sen. Robert P. Griffin, R-
Mich., made the remark Thursday on the Senate floor in a preview of his testimony today
before the Senate Judiciary Committee as it continued hearings into the nomination of Abe Fortas as chief justice and Homer Thornberry as associate justice.

Thornberry now is a judge on
the federal Court of Appeals in New Orleans.

The Judiciary Committee
opened hearings into the nominations Thursday, but put off
questioning of Fortas until next week.

Griffin said he wanted to know how big a role Abe Fortas,
nominated to succeed Earl Warren as chief justice, played in White House decisions while serving on the court since 1965.
Fortas is a longtime Johnson
friend and adviser.

And, Griffin said, he also
wants to know why Thornberry,
another old friend of the President, served an extra five months in Congress in 1963 after being named a federal judge in Texas.

Griffin cited "reports that the arrangement was designed to insure Mr. Thornberry's vote on legislative issues during the interim."

The senator added: "This situation again suggests a flagrant
disregard of the constitutional
doctrine of separation of powers."

Griffin said the committee
should find out "how many times Mr. Fortas has been consulted, or the extent to which he has been involved, if at all, in actions and decisions of the White House while he has been a member of the court."

"If the doctrine of separate
powers is important," Griffin
said, "what justification could
be offered in the event a member of the judicial branch should actively participate, on a regular, undisclosed basis, in decisions of the executive branch
while serving on the bench?"

Shortly after the committee
opened its hearing it agreed to a request by Sen. Sam J. Ervin
Jr., D-N.C., that direct questioning of Fortas be delayed until next Tuesday.

The senator, a former justice
of the North Carolina Supreme Court, said he wanted to do
more research before quizzing Fortas about his "judicial philosophy."

you're acting hotsy-totsy—showing off. But if you drive the limousine yourself, they don't like that either. So"—she laughed
and made a grimace—"maybe
you'd better just walk to work."

Analyzing her own personality, Barbra said:
"You have to be yourself, no matter what. I have always wanted to excel in anything I tried—to be the very best."

"I feel that self-doubt is both
my biggest virtue and my worst fault."

"Self-doubt is a virtue because it never lets me assume anything. I feel it's better to be open and vulnerable to hurt in doing one's work."

"But self-doubt can be a fault
also. In everyday life people can take advantage of it—and wound you."

A person's likes and dislikes
are usually keys to their character. Here are some things Bar-
bra likes:

"Gardenias—Victorian furniture—small, fluffy white dogs—
sea smells and country sounds
—Oriental philosophy and Chinese food—being in the middle of reading 10 books at a time
—soft drinks—all kinds of hats
—art nouveau—antiques Indian
music, because it has the sound
of the soul—early morning—big,
soft, floppy beds—working hard
and being sometimes lazy, too
—muted, subtle colors—people
who really care about what they do—and tall, dark, handsome
men who have a sense of themselves and feel their own worth."

Barbra has a shorter list of
dislikes: "Eggs—hospitals—
bright red colors—liquor—the smell of ammonia—vulgarity—
flat notes—and people who assume too much familiarity too
quickly."

Miss Brazil Is 1st Class Sleeper

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Miss Brazil, relaxes better than almost anyone at the Miss Universe Pageant.

Sleep might be a better word than relax for the spare minutes of 20-year-old Martha Vasconcellos, an auburn-haired lovely from Salvador in the Brazilian state of Bahia.

Martha stretches out her shapely 5-foot-8 frame backstage whenever she gets a break from rehearsals. She flops on the floor, on chairs, on another contestant's knee, any place, and closes her exotic green eyes.

"I'm lazy anyway," said Miss Brazil during a waking moment at the hairdresser. "There is no time to sleep here. We got to bed at 1 a.m. and they had us up again at 6 a.m."

"When we're up it's work, work, work so when they say rest, I snore," said Martha, who was among 15 swimsuit competition winners Wednesday night. Miss Brazil won over 28 girls in her state contest, then topped

MRS. THOMAS F. CARTER

Miss Tena Louise Pilkinton, daughter of Judge and Mrs. James Harvey Pilkinton of Hope, and Thomas F. Carter of New Orleans, Louisiana, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor Carter of Crossett, were united in marriage on Saturday, July 6, in a candlelight ceremony at 8:30 in the evening in the sanctuary of The First Presbyterian Church of Hope.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Reverend Willard R. Burks III, son of Mr. R. Burks of Hope, uncle of the bride. Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. R. L. Gosnell, organist, presented nuptial music and accompanied the soloist, Mr. David Pearson of Hope.

Vows were exchanged before a background of Cathedral Candelabras and votive candles in spiral candelabras. The altar was flanked with fern trees, spiral candles, and pedestal urns and white baskets which held white gladioli, majestic daisies, and stock. Lighting white tapers held by two arch candelabras in front of the choir rails were Gayle Russell Deal, Fayetteville, a cousin of the groom, and Jerry Franklin Morgan of Crossett. Candelholders of hurricane lamps decorated with greenery marked the end of the pews.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length cage gown of peau d'ange lace and silk organza. Scalloped lace enriched the Sabrina neckline with the front lace bodice lavishly encrusted with tiny seed pearls. Lace-meditations cascaded down the front skirt to join the scalloped lace border which encircled all around the skirt. The matching mantilla of imported silk illusion had a scalloped lace border and ended in a Cathedral train. The bride's only jewelry was a single strand of pearls and she carried a bouquet of white orchids.

Mrs. Jack Lee Royal of Hope served her cousin as Matron of Honor, and Miss Jane Grigg of Searcy was Maid of Honor. Bridesmaids included Misses Mary Alice Caston, Hope, Margaret Ann Hatchett, Little Rock; Susan Marie Haralson, Pine Bluff, and Mrs. Ronald Ralph Formby of Hope. Each of the attendants wore formal gowns of Melon imported chiffon which were fashioned on an empire line with demure accented puffed sleeves. Their headpieces

a field of 35 to win the trip to Miami Beach where Miss Universe 1968 will be chosen from a field of 65 Saturday night.

There is at least one distant cheerleader for Miss Brazil who thinks she is Miss Universe material—her fiancé, Reynaldo Loureiro, an engineer in Salvador.

HE SHIES AWAY FROM GRADUATION EXERCISES

Dear Helen: For his high school graduation, our son said he was too "shy" to be upon that stage. We argued that he should attend the ceremonies. At the last minute, he got a job away from home and reported there a day before graduation, so he had an excuse. His diploma was mailed to him.

Now he will graduate from college next year. He swears he won't attend the service. Says it's enough that he earned the degree, and why go through a silly ceremony? He isn't really shy, just determined.

I want to attend one graduation ceremony for our only son. Am I asking too much? —MOTHER

Dear Mother: No, you aren't asking too much. A mother needs her memories, and a son's graduation from college is among the most impressive. He'd be selfish to deny you that, and with all his big-talk, I really don't think he will. —H

Dear Helen: We have been married three years now, and I thought men had the decency to part with addresses and photographs of old girl friends when they married. Mine doesn't!

We are now moving into a new home and I don't care to have 8x10 photos of other girls around the house. He even has one old gal who still sends him birthday and Christmas greetings—to his work address.

When I complain, my husband says I am acting like a two-year-old. Is he right? —JUST WONDERING.

Dear Won: ... More like a 17-year-old, I'd say. What's the harm in old pictures so long as they're kept in a bottom drawer? Don't tell me you've torn up all your pre-marriage photos—and that you wouldn't think it "kinda sweet" if a former boy friend sent you a Christmas card?

If a marriage can't survive a few reminders of single life, it's on shaky ground. —H

Dear Helen: I am a widow of 48, have a good job, no children. I own a small bungalow.

About two years ago I met a divorced man who does business with my company. After we'd seen each other for a while, he moved in with me. He never mentions marriage, nor does he contribute to house expenses, but I know he cares for me as he has made love to me every night since he moved in. Trouble is, I'm going broke, and he doesn't take the hint.

He's very sweet, and I hate to upset the applecart, but shouldn't he consider sharing his name and the household bills with me? Sometimes I think I'm nothing more to him than —FREE BOARD AND BROAD

Dear F.B.B.: So late you get smart! This free-loading lover is a luxury you can't afford. And aren't you lucky there's no marriage to complicate matters when you throw him out! —H

Dear Helen: The letter from "Scared" sounds like me. I was afraid and timid all through school. After I married, I felt as if everyone was better than I was. Then I went to work for a company which required its workers to take a self-improvement course so we would meet the public better.

The first night I was so scared I couldn't even tell my name. The first week I won the prize for the biggest improvement, and a whole new world has opened up to me. These courses are wonderful. —B.J.C.

To Hunt Or Not To Hunt

For panbroiling, the griddle or frying-pan does not need to be heated before adding meat.

However, there's this exception: if the meat is frozen, and panbroiling is started, it's necessary to have a hot griddle or frying-pan so the meat will brown before the meat defrosts on the surface thus retarding browning.

When coating frozen steaks or chops with egg-bread crumb mixture, make certain the meats are partially defrosted so the coating adheres to the meat, not the pan.

Scramble the Ham

Just a cup of ham bits and silvers left? Mix with a bit of finely minced chives and cook with six beaten eggs in the frying-pan. That's four to six servings for any meal.

2 Tie for Lead at Milwaukee

By BILL HALLS
Associated Press Sports Writer
MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Mac McLendon, who won a PGA tournament the first time he tried, and Rocky Thompson, looking for his first victory after five years of pro golf, shared the lead going into today's second round of the $200,000 Greater Milwaukee Open.

McLendon and Thompson topped a swarm of subpar rounds Thursday with a pair of record 66s over the 6,155-yard par-72 North Shore Country Club course.

The three-year-old course, normally ravaged by stiff winds off nearby Lake Michigan, was more like a duffer's paradise as 40 players broke par and 29 played in regulation strokes.

"The wind will make it a completely different course," said the 22-year-old McLendon, a rookie from Birmingham, Ala., who won the Magnolia Classic in his PGA debut. "When the wind goes up, the scores go up."

Most everyone else agreed, including Dick Lotz, Fred Marli, and Red Horn, another PGA rookie from Overlook Park, Jan. All three were one stroke back of the leaders with 67s.

"The wind will be the whole thing," added Dave Stockton, who shot a 67 to pick up where he left off two weeks ago when he won the Cleveland wopen.

McLendon took the early lead with his blistering morning round, which included seven birdies and one bogey. He had a four-under-par 32 on the rugged back nine.

Thompson, a 28-year-old former University of Houston golfer from Wichita Falls, Tex., carded six birdies and 12 pars.

Julius Boros turned in a 71; Tom Weiskopf, second leading money winner on the tour had a 72, and Lee Trevino, the U.S. Open champion, had a 73.

The 72-hole Milwaukee Open ends Sunday.

Carlisle to Get Shot at Internat'l

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer
WESTBURY, N.Y. (AP) — Carlisle may break the victory drought of the United States in the $100,000 Roosevelt International Trot Saturday night.

Speedy Scot, in 1964, was the last American trotter to win this global spectacular of harness racing.

Now Carlisle, with Billy Haughton in the sulky, is given an excellent chance of beating France's favored Roquepine before an expected 40,000 at Roosevelt Raceway.

Roquepine, a 7-year-old mare who will be trying for her second straight international success, is the early 5-2 choice from the No. 6 post position. Carlisle, a 5-year-old stallion who drew the No. 3 post, is the 3-1 second choice in the 1 1/4 mile classic.

Carlisle, a son of Hickory Pride out of Good News, with career earnings of $460,886, has acquired a reputation of being erratic.

He won the $5,000 American Trotting Championship in June although he trotted the last quarter-mile on his own courage after losing a shoe.

Fresh Yankee of Canada, who finished second to Roquepine last year, is the 7-2 third choice.

Houston Up and Beats Cardinals

By MIKE BRYSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
A not too funny thing happened to St. Louis' Cardinals when they ran up against the National League's palsies. They were beaten.

And, it took a late rescue effort by Lou Brock and Roger Maris to prevent the rampaging front-runners from being victimized twice by Houston's cellar-dwellers Thursday night.

The Astros, who've had a virtual monopoly on last for a month, used a two-run triple by Denis Menke in the 10th inning to snap the Cards' seven-game victory string, 5-4, in the opener of a doubleheader.

They were on the road to repeating that feat, despite a club record six errors, when Maris' single and Brock's double each accounted for a run in the eighth that let St. Louis escape 8-7 in a bizarre nightcap.

However, the loss didn't do much to dim St. Louis' chances of turning the league race into a farce. The Cards' lead was trimmed only half a game—to 9 1/2.

In other senior circuit games, Atlanta nipped Los Angeles 1-0 on Phil Niekro's four-hitter; San Francisco blasted Cincinnati 7-1; Philadelphia extended Pittsburgh's losing streak to six with a doubleheader sweep, 5-0 and 4-1, and New York edged Chicago 1-0, before dropping the nightcap of a doubleheader 2-0.

Minnesota stopped Detroit 5-4, Baltimore defeated Washington 2-0, New York topped Chicago 5-4, Oakland defeated Cleveland 4-3 and California slipped past Boston 3-2 in the American League.

Niekro baffled Los Angeles with his dazzling knuckleball and a speeded-up delivery.

"I'm putting just a little more pop in my pitches, and it seems to be paying off," said Niekro, who retired the first 13 batters before yielding a fifth-inning single to Jim Lefebvre.

Joe Torre singled home the Braves' lone run in the first.

Hank Aaron was deprived of becoming only the eighth man in baseball history to hit 500 or more homers when left fielder Jim Fairley hauled in one of his long drives at the fence. Aaron needs only one more homer to reach the coveted plateau.

The Giants rode a single, double and homer by Dick Dietz and two run-scoring singles by Ron Hunt in their rout of Cincinnati. Gaylord Perry, 8-6, scattered six hits as San Francisco backed him with an 11-hit attack.

Willie Mays' double in the first inning moved him past Ty Cobb into fourth place on the all-time extra base hit list. It was Mays' 1,140th extra base hit of his career.

Pittsburgh has played three straight doubleheaders—and lost all three.

The Phils stopped them in the opener on Larry Jackson's six-hitter, then Cookie Rojas' doubled in a run and tallied himself on Tony Gonzalez' single to snap a 1-1 deadlock in the eighth.

Ernie Banks' two-run double in the ninth inning produced Chicago's victory in the nightcap, after New York made Ed Kranepool's fourth-inning RBI single stand up in the opener.

May, Cooke continued, were concluded last Monday night when the Philadelphia 76ers traded the 7-foot National Basketball Association All-Star center for three Laker players.

Chamberlain admitted he had been contacted "by several people from the American Basketball Association," including the locally rival Los Angeles Stars. Chamberlain did not elaborate.

Nats Help Orioles and New Manager

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Washington is in the midst of another aid program—and Baltimore isn't even a foreign country.

Perhaps charity begins at home, but for the Washington Senators it bursts into full bloom in Baltimore, where they helped make Earl Weaver's debut as manager of the Orioles a success Thursday night by losing a 2-0 squeaker.

The Orioles and Senators have met 10 times this season with the same outcome—a Baltimore victory. Since the Birds are only seven games above .500 with a 44-37 record, it's not hard to see why they're in second place in the American League.

Elsewhere, Minnesota edged league-leading Detroit 5-4, Oakland nipped Cleveland 4-3, California ended Boston's eight-game winning streak 3-2 and the New York Yankees beat the Chicago White Sox 5-4.

In National League action, St. Louis topped Houston 8-7 after losing the opener of a doubleheader 5-4 in 10 innings, Atlanta blanked Los Angeles 1-0, San Francisco walloped Cincinnati 7-1, Philadelphia swept a twin bill from Pittsburgh 5-0 and 4-1, and the New York Mets beat the Chicago Cubs 1-0 in their opener, but dropped the second game 2-0.

Baltimore's victory, behind Dave McNally's two-hit pitching, moved the Orioles into second place 9 1/2 games behind Detroit and three percentage points ahead of Cleveland.

And Weaver, who replaced Hank Bauer Thursday as resident genius in the Baltimore dugout, looked like he had inherited Casey Stengel's ouija board.

The 37-year-old skipper put Don Buford, an infielder, in center field and moved weak-hitting Mark Belanger from eighth to second in the batting order. The results were astonishing, to say the least.

Buford led off the first inning with a walk, buzzed to third on Belanger's single and scored the Orioles' first run. He homered in the fifth for an insurance tally.

Rod Carew was the hitting hero as Minnesota snapped a six-game losing streak. He tied the game in the seventh with a two-run single and won it in the ninth, singling home Rich Reese.

Mickey Stanley and Dick McAuliffe homered for Detroit while Cesar Tovar and rookie shortstop Rick Renick connected for the Twins. Renick, just recalled from the Pacific Coast League, became the 36th player in major league history to hit a home run on his first at-bat.

Reggie Jackson's 14th homer with one out in the eighth gave Oakland and Chuck Dobson their triumph over Cleveland. Dobson hurled hitless ball through five innings and the A's took a 3-0 lead in the fourth. But the Indians got one back in the sixth and tied it on Larry Brown's two-run homer in the seventh.

Vic Davallillo's two-run single with the bases loaded and two out climaxed a seventh-inning rally as California ended Boston's winning streak. The Red Sox took a 2-0 lead on an unearned run in the first and Rico Petrocelli's fourth-inning homer.

Andy Kosco started one rally with a double and finished another with a run-scoring single as the Yankees edged the White Sox before a crowd of 40,575 in Milwaukee. It was the fifth of nine American League games the Sox will play in Milwaukee and the largest crowd thus far.

Arkansas 15th in Milwaukee Open
MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Dick Crawford of Bella Vista shot a two-under-par 70 Thursday to tie for 15th place after the first round of the $200,000 Greater Milwaukee Open Golf Tournament.

Crawford had nines of 36-34, R. H. Sikes of Springdale matched par with nines of 36-34, Miller Barber of Texarkana shot 36-37 for a 1-over-par 73.

CLARKSVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Verne Moser, who guided Trinidad, State Junior College of Colorado to a 28-4 record last year, has been named head basketball coach at the College of the Ozarks.

Moser succeeds Willard Smith, who died recently. Moser's teams compiled a 43-14 record at Trinidad State during the past two years. He is a graduate of Emporia State College of Kansas.

Associated Press Sports Writer
CARNOSTIE, Scotland (AP) — Want to be the biggest money winner on the American golf circuit?

Eat buffalo, elk and deer meat. Want to win the British Open Golf Championship? Eat fish, cold sliced peaches, duck and grapefruit.

What this has to do with golf happens to be Bill Casper, 37, of San Diego, Calif.

He moved into the third round of the British Open this morning, four shots ahead of the field over Carnoustie's murderous 7,252-yard, par-72 links.

Casper, leading money winner in the United States at around $130,000 cozed his way through his first two rounds of 72 and 68 and he confided:

"My nonallergy diet now which took me down from 220 pounds to 185 consists of smoked salmon, whole duck, salad, grapefruit and cold sliced peaches."

Two years ago, Casper was on all game meat to fight an allergy that either made him fat or ill.

After winning that battle, Casper got off the game meat.

Behind Casper at 144 were Britain's Tony Jacklin and Brian Barnes, plus Bob Charles of New Zealand.

At 145 were Gary Player, South Africa, Jack Nicklaus, Columbus, Ohio, and Paddy Skerrett of Ireland.

Bracketed at 146 were Dave Thomas of Wales and Maurice Bembridge of England.

Before tonight, this lot of 70 survivors from an original field of 130 will be reduced to the low 45 and ties for Saturday's 18-hole final.

Nicklaus, the 1966 British Open winner at Murfield, and 4 to 1 favorite here in the pre-tournament betting, has his own diet as well. He's drinking milk by the quart and the way he charged home in Thursday's round gave cause for thought.

The 28-year-old Big Bear spun around in a brilliant 69 which put him in the picture at 145, even though five shots off the pace.

over Tenison East's rugged par 70.

Paul Langager of Orem, Utah was hard on Towry's heels with a 146. Langager, 23, a Vietnam veteran and now a student at the University of Utah, came in with a four-over-par 74 Thursday. The steady Langager has had but one birdie in 36 holes.

Sixty-one players made the 36-hole cut at 157 over the rugged water and tree-lined course. Dallas took the team championship, its third, with a 17-over par 447 total. Memphis was second, 11 shots back.

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Gene Towry, the 36-hole leader in the National Public Links Tournament and a former finalist, quit golf for three years before he decided to attempt to qualify for the 43rd Championship over his home course.

"I last played in a tournament in 1959," said Towry, who lives in the Dallas suburb of Richardson.

The 130-pound Towry, who stands only 5-foot 7-inches, shot a one-over par 71 Thursday for a 36-hole total of 145—five shots

Casper Leads British Open by 4 Strokes

Associated Press Sports Writer
CARNOSTIE, Scotland (AP) — Want to be the biggest money winner on the American golf circuit?

Eat buffalo, elk and deer meat. Want to win the British Open Golf Championship? Eat fish, cold sliced peaches, duck and grapefruit.

What this has to do with golf happens to be Bill Casper, 37, of San Diego, Calif.

He moved into the third round of the British Open this morning, four shots ahead of the field over Carnoustie's murderous 7,252-yard, par-72 links.

Casper, leading money winner in the United States at around $130,000 cozed his way through his first two rounds of 72 and 68 and he confided:

"My nonallergy diet now which took me down from 220 pounds to 185 consists of smoked salmon, whole duck, salad, grapefruit and cold sliced peaches."

Two years ago, Casper was on all game meat to fight an allergy that either made him fat or ill.

After winning that battle, Casper got off the game meat.

Behind Casper at 144 were Britain's Tony Jacklin and Brian Barnes, plus Bob Charles of New Zealand.

At 145 were Gary Player, South Africa, Jack Nicklaus, Columbus, Ohio, and Paddy Skerrett of Ireland.

Bracketed at 146 were Dave Thomas of Wales and Maurice Bembridge of England.

Before tonight, this lot of 70 survivors from an original field of 130 will be reduced to the low 45 and ties for Saturday's 18-hole final.

Dove Seasons in Sept. and Dec.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The stage Game and Fish Commission has set Sept. 1 through Oct. 5 and Dec. 18 through Jan. 11 as the dates for the two dove seasons this winter.

The daily bag limit is 12, with a possession limit of 24. Shooting hours will be one-half hour before sunrise to sunset.

The commission also sets dates for the hunting seasons of galinules (Oct. 22-Dec. 31), rail (Sept. 1-Nov. 9), woodcock (Dec. 12-Feb. 14), and snipe (Nov. 27-Jan. 15).

Associated Press Sports Writer
BALTIMORE (AP) — Earl Weaver made two line-up changes for his major league managerial debut and announced he would have the Baltimore Orioles "scramble for runs" when necessary.

For one game, at least, the 37-year-old replacement for departed Hank Bauer looked like a wizard in knicker pants.

—Don Buford, playing his second game as a major league center fielder, walked and scored a run in the first inning and homered in the fifth as Baltimore edged Washington 2-0 Thursday night with Dave McNally hurling a two-hitter.

—Mark Belanger, moved from eighth to second in the batting order, singled Buford to third base in the opening frame, and the run scored on a double play grounder.

—The scrambling had to be seen to be believed. Boog Powell, who scrambles like a rhinoceros, stole second base in the first inning. It was Powell's sixth stolen base in 892 games.

Frank Robinson, a proficient base stealer but more noted for his slugging, also stole a base, ending with a head-first slide.

"The two runs were scrambled for, didn't score," said Weaver, noting that Powell and Robinson were left stranded on second.

Weaver, who managed Orioles farm teams for 11 seasons, remembered he once wrote a scouting report which said Buford could play in the big leagues as a center fielder. Chicago later shifted him to the infield.

"Playing Buford in center is an offensive move," Weaver said prior to the game. "It might hurt us defensively, but that's the gamble I have to take if I want more offense."

Buford, playing for the slumping Paul Blair, didn't have a fielding chance before being replaced by Blair in the seventh.

Weaver also called the turn on Belanger, who entered the game with a .194 average. "I want to take advantage of Mark's speed," he said.

Albuquerque Finally Wins Over Travs

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — Albuquerque's Dodgers broke out of a prolonged slump with a 4-3 victory over Arkansas Thursday night in Texas League action.

The issue wasn't decided until the final out when Albuquerque shortstop John Butler started a doubleplay to end the game as Arkansas' Gary Etone crossed home plate with what could have been the tying run.

The Dodgers rallied from a two-run deficit in the bottom of the fourth on singles by Mike Budd, Jim Barfield and Bob Stinson. They took a 4-2 advantage in the fifth on a triple by Von Joshua and run-scoring singles by Ted Johnson and Bill Eudakis.

Arkansas' Mike Christino accounted for two runs with solo homers in the second and sixth inning. The other Arkansas run came in the second inning when pinch runner Quique Rivera scored on a fielder's choice.

El Paso's Tom Silverio drove in two runs with a home run and a double as the San Kings defeated Memphis 3-2 and took the series from the Blues, 3-1. El Paso built up a 3-0 lead in the first two innings but Ken Tatum weakened in the ninth and needed relief help from Steve Kealey. Memphis scored once in the fourth and once in the fifth.

Dallas-Fort Worth defeated San Antonio 3-0 and Shreveport blasted Amarillo 13-4.

Democrats, Harassed by Chi 'Phone Strike, May Move Convention

By GARY GREENBAUM Associated Press Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — More than $1.3 million has been spent so far in Chicago for the Democratic National Convention, which may be moved out of the city unless a strike affecting preparations is settled.

Mayor Richard J. Daley, a power in Democratic party councils, repeatedly has laughed off reports his city might lose the convention. He has insisted the convention will go on in Chicago Aug. 26 as scheduled.

But Tuesday John M. Bailey, chairman of the Democratic National Committee which runs the quadrennial nominating conventions, said, "I don't rule out the possibility we might move if the labor difficulties are not resolved by the end of next week."

Bailey added that there are no present plans for a move.

Daley continues to tell newsmen: "We'll have a good, old-fashioned, old-time Democratic convention with the delegates in charge and maybe without you media folks all over the place."

A strike in progress since May 8 against the Illinois Bell Telephone Co. is threatening the convention that would bring thousands of delegates, alternates, their wives and families, plus other thousands of aides and onlookers to Chicago for most of a week.

On strike and picketing are members of a local of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers. These are the specialists who install telephones, television cables and other communications equipment in the International Amphitheatre, the convention hall, and hotels where the delegations set up headquarters.

A picket line at any of these locations most likely would keep other craftsmen off the job — carpenters, painters and others needed to get the hall and rooms into shape.

Joseph O'Brien, Bell spokesman, said the longer the strike continues "the less facilities for news coverage there will be."

He said Bell has spent $400,000 of the $1.5 million it expects to spend on installations. This would be lost if the convention moved to another city.

O'Brien said television network coverage might be impossible if the strike goes on much longer. "Installing their lines is the most time consuming, and time is what we're running out of. Only so many men fit in a manhole; we couldn't make up the delay by adding extra crews."

The city of Chicago will have to write off more than $400,000 if the convention falls through, officials said. Chicago pledged $750,000 to the party's expense chest and threw in an additional $300,000 promise for miscellaneous expenses.

Old Guard, WR, Stump Themes

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Frank Whitbeck of Little Rock and Ted Boswell of Bryant hammered away Thursday at the recurring "old guard" theme, while Bruce Bennett of El Dorado attacked Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller.

Whitbeck, Boswell and Bennett, three of the six candidates for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, voiced their opinions and widely separated sites.

Whitbeck made his remarks during a television show. Boswell answered questions at a news conference at Fort Smith and Bennett talked during a fish fry at Lake Village.

Whitbeck said two of the candidates "boast of their alignment with the men and groups who were in fact the causes of the frustrations and anxieties which brought about the defeat of the Democratic party in 1966."

He apparently was referring to Bennett and state Rep. Marion H. Crank.

"If either of these men is the nominee, it will be a sad day for the Democratic party and the state of Arkansas," he said.

Political observers say Bennett may have the backing of former Gov. Orval E. Faubus while they link Crank's name with W. R. "Witt" Stephens, sometimes termed the "king-maker" in the state.

"We need a chief executive without entangling alliances, and we need a man who can represent all the people — one who is not owned by someone else," Whitbeck said.

Whitbeck said he was in favor of preventing the sale of pistols to criminals, dope addicts, alcoholics and minors. He said, however, that he was opposed to any legislation which would infringe on a law-abiding citizen's right to bear arms.

He said he was in favor of prison reform and opposed to abolishment of capital punishment. He also said he supported streamlining the state, county and city governments and lowering the vote age to 18. He said he would sign a "properly drawn" mixed drink bill, but that it would not be part of his program.

Boswell said the surge of new industry would mean a demand for more vocational training schools. He said any new vocational training facility should be built in the southeast section of the state.

The former attorney general also charged that Rockefeller's administration was not interested in making the prison system pay for itself. He said he would make a self-sustaining prison a must if elected.

If you want to find where a horse has strayed try to think like a horse. If you want to learn to bid like an expert learn to think like an expert. Of course, you won't always be right. Bridge experts make mistakes and some of them are humblers.

Now for a little expert thinking with the East hand. Your heart bid is quite sound and you are delighted when your partner takes you right to game. You expect you will make your contract easily. You aren't worried about South's one spade overall but you don't like the way North is thinking and you like it even less when North bids four spades.

Your first thought is to double. Your second is that it would be far better to double five spades. Maybe you can bring home five hearts anyway. Even if you can't, isn't it likely that a five bid will push South to five spades?

So your second thought is to bid five hearts. However, if you really are an expert you will have a third thought which is that maybe a club lead will be more effective against spades than hearts.

Now you have finished thinking like an expert and you proceed to bid five clubs just as an expert would. Your partner will take you back to hearts if South passes but South bids five spades. It comes around to you and you double. Your partner leads a club and you manage to beat five spades exactly one trick but you should be mighty happy about the whole thing. If you hadn't bid clubs and your partner had opened a heart declarer would have romped home with his five spades.

What do you do now?

A—Bid five no-trump. This asks for kings and suggests seven in any event.

TODAY'S QUESTION

You do bid five no-trump and your partner bids six clubs to show no kings. What do you do now?

DOCTOR'S MAILBAG

Hormones Help in Relief Of Menopausal Symptoms

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—I am 49. I recently had a complete hysterectomy. My doctor says I will have a surgical menopause. What are some of the symptoms I should expect? Should I take hormone pills daily or only occasionally? And for how long?

A—Cessation of menstruation is the only true symptom of the menopause. Hot flushes, with or without profuse sweating, often have their onset with the menopause but may persist for many years after the menstrual periods have ceased. Other symptoms complained of by menopausal women, such as headache, dizziness, fatigue and irritability, are due to aging or other causes.

Female hormones relieve menopausal symptoms. Some doctors recommend a daily dose, adjust it to the patient's individual need and continue its use indefinitely. Others give it intermittently and taper off as the patient approaches 65 or 70.

Q—I started my menopause at the age of 40. I am now 47. For the last 18 months I have not seen a sign of my periods. Is it still possible to become pregnant?

A—Pregnancy is almost unheard of in a woman who has not menstruated for one year.

Q—What are the symptoms of the male menopause? How long does it last? Should a man take male hormones for it?

A—Although some men between the ages of 45 and 55 show signs of increased irritability, general apathy or depression and a few even complain of hot flushes and sweating, it is a confusion of terms.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

Virginia has given us more presidents, eight, than any other state. The World Almanac says. Succeeding the Virginia dynasty of Washington, Jefferson, Madison and Monroe were William Henry Harrison, Tyler, Taylor and Wilson. Ranking after Virginia in presidential productivity are Ohio, seven; New York, four; and Massachusetts, three. Fourteen states have produced presidents.

Our Daily Bread

Sliced Thin by The Editor
Alex. H. Washburn
Press and Radio
Are Always
in the Middle

"Race Crisis Leaves Press in the Middle," says a headline in the current issue of our trade publication, National Publisher, Washington, which reached our desk today.

As a matter of fact, both radio and the press are always in the middle in reporting today's tumultuous times.

The radio angle is reported in another publication which also reached us today—the Pine Bluff Commercial of last Tuesday, July 9.

According to the Commercial a radio preacher, the Rev. Bob Harrington of New Orleans, billed as "The Chaplain of Bourbon Street," was making the final broadcast of a three-day crusade over Radio Station KOTN, which has the same 1490 k.c. frequency as KXAR, when the station cut him off the air.

Not entirely—the cut was only 15 or 20 seconds, according to Guy Wilcox, the station's commercial manager. KOTN said the evangelist made slurring remarks against KOTN, against Gov. Rockefeller, and against former Governor Clement of Tennessee.

The preacher said of KOTN: "If cleanliness is next to Godliness, then it must be an ungodly station."

The preacher made reference to Arkansas' governor as having a drinking problem, without calling Rockefeller by name, but did use Clement's name on the same charge.

Naturally KOTN interrupted the broadcast, at least for the offending passage.

Newspapers and radio stations are public stages for formal debate, and the well-established rules limit how far the writer or speaker may indulge in personalities.

KOTN, quite properly, announced that it was offering Gov. Rockefeller and ex-Gov. Clement free time in which to respond to the evangelist's breach of good taste.

Every newspaper and radio station encounters similar problems in handling public controversies.

Some years ago in a local option election this editor offered the Prohibitionists space on the front page doubling the space used in his editorial column upholding the "wet" argument. Promptly a Prohibitionist sent in a piece attempting to quote what I was supposed to have said in a private conversation—no witnesses, no record, no nothing.

I let it go to press without comment. But the next day I took the Prohibitionists apart. How, I asked, in the absence of witnesses or records can you prove I said it, or I prove I didn't say it?

Public debate must stand on records and known facts, otherwise it is meaningless.

Newspapers have to be edited, and radio stations have to be monitored—and we whose duty it is to do this are like umpires... always in the middle.

Verdict of Death Upheld on Maxwell

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The 8th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals Thursday upheld the conviction of William L. Maxwell, a Negro, despite a contention that Negroes convicted of raping white women were disproportionately sentenced to death in Arkansas and other southern states.

Maxwell was convicted of beating and raping a white woman in Hot Springs in November, 1961 and of beating her crippled 90-year-old father.

U.S. District Judge J. Smith Henley had previously refused to release Maxwell from death row at Tucker Prison Farm on a habeas corpus petition.

Attorneys for Maxwell said a statistical survey of a criminologist of death sentences imposed for rape in 19 Arkansas counties and 11 other southern states showed that a Negro man convicted of such a crime has about a 50 per cent chance of receiving the death sentence.

The survey indicated that a man convicted of an assault on a woman of his own race stands only a 14 per cent chance.

6-Year-Old Is Lone Survivor of Plane Crash in Mountains

WHEATRIDGE, Colo. (AP) — Six-year-old Rae Anne Wood, her legs plastered in casts to mend broken bones and crushed ankles, smiled as she looked at the money she received from an unknown admirer.

"What would you like to buy?" asked her aunt, Miss Winnie Sheridan of Sacramento, Calif.

"Some presents for my brothers when I go home," Rae Anne said as she clutched the coins.

But her brothers—Jamie, Stephen, and Gered—are dead. So are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Wood. They died when their single-engine airplane crashed into the side of a Colorado mountain, just west of Denver late in June, Rae Anne said.

Funny Girl Barbara Streisand Says Rumor About Her Not Funny

By HAL BOYLE
GARRISON, N.Y. (AP) — Success is a bittersweet lollipop.

It has brought fame, fortune and acclaim to Barbara Streisand in every major branch of show business.

But Brooklyn's onetime homely duckling is annoyed by reports that she is impetuous, temperamental and sometimes difficult to work with.

"It annoys me to be judged by people who don't even know me," she remarked during a midway break in location shooting here of scenes from her forthcoming $20-million costume film, "Hello, Dolly!"

"They go by hearsay. It confuses me."

But she is disturbed at the thought the public may get a distorted idea of the kind of person she is.

"I haven't told her in so many words that her family is dead," Miss Sheridan said. "She wanted those presents for her brothers—just little things. But she was thinking of them."

The girl may never know how her father fought to keep the overloaded, four-passenger craft airborne by flying through valleys rather than over the mountains.

Rae Anne knows the doctors plan to take the casts off her legs today. She also knows she might be on her way home within a week.

"I've told her that her parents and brothers won't be there. That she won't be able to see them anymore," Miss Sheridan said.

"I'm afraid they may think I'm some kind of monster," she said, cutting off a small piece of steak to feed her 18-month-old son, Jason Emanuel.

"I don't want people to think I am a terrible human being. I'm not. If I were, it would show through on the screen. You can't really fool anybody on the screen."

"But when you are a star, you are an open target—and the bigger the star the bigger the target."

"You can't win. If you're bitchy and pompous, they don't like you. If you're normal and unassuming, they say you're uninteresting."

"If you ride in a chauffeur's car, they say you're a snob."

At top is car in which Kenneth J. Huckabee was killed on the Spring Hill road this morning in a head-on collision with Forrest Hairr, whose pickup truck is shown in lower picture.

Kenneth J. Huckabee, 24, of Route 1, Hope, was dead on arrival at a Hope hospital, following a head-on collision three miles south of Hope on the Spring Hill highway, at 7 a.m. Friday morning.

Driver of the other vehicle was Forrest Hairr of Hope who suffered facial lacerations, leg injury and possible broken ribs. Both men were brought to Hope in a Herndon ambulance.

State Trooper Wallace Martin investigated the accident assisted by Hope City Policemen Sgt. Carl Ward and Leon Neal.

Huckabee was a lifelong resident of this area, member of the Baptist church and was employed by Lone Star of Texarkana.

Survivors include his wife, Gloria; two sons, Kenneth Wayne and Dennis Ray of the home; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Huckabee of Hope; two brothers, Doyle Ray of Texarkana and Charles Dean of Little Rock; grandparents, Mrs. Lucy Huckabee and Mrs. Pearl Tompkins of Hope.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete and will be announced later by Oakcrest Funeral Home of Hope.

Ernest T. Bradow, 26, head of a group called PRE-ARM, People's Rights Enforced Against Riots and Murder, said he received a subpoena Thursday from Bergen County Prosecutor Guy W. Calissi ordering him to appear before the Bergen County grand jury Monday.

Memphis Is Preparing to Try Jas. Ray

By BILL JOHNSON
Associated Press Writer
MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Officials preparing for what promises to be the biggest Tennessee trial since the famous "monkey trial" of 1925 are making strict security arrangements.

Officials said Thursday that plans are being made to make a voice and picture tape of every person attending the trial of James Earl Ray, charged with assassinating Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. here on April 4.

This would be the first trial anywhere that such a security precaution has been required, Charles Holmes, public relations aide to Sheriff William N. Morris, said.

Newsmen accredited to cover the trial, expected to be held in late fall, will be given identification cards bearing their photographs.

The trial is scheduled to be held in one of the Shelby County Criminal Court courtrooms so Ray can be brought directly into the court through an underground corridor without being seen by the outside public.

A secondary security line is expected to be established to keep everyone without pressing business out of the Criminal Courts building.

Ray currently is in jail in London awaiting a hearing on his appeal of an extradition order.

"This is a serious matter," said Sheriff Morris, who is in charge of arrangements for the trial.

"There will be no carnival air here," Morris said. "The sheriff, the judges and the attorney general have been conferring at intervals for several weeks to assure a fair and orderly trial in a dignified atmosphere."

"The trial will be conducted in strict keeping with established standards of dignity and justice," said Ditt. Atty. Gen. Phil M. Canale, who will head the prosecution team.

Inspector Warren Cargill has been placed in charge of physical arrangements for the trial, and he is supervising the remodeling of the interior cell in which Ray would be housed if returned from London.

The largest Criminal Courts courtroom can seat slightly over 100 spectators, and a large number of the seats will be assigned to news media representatives covering the trial, Morris said, however, seats would be reserved for relatives of both Ray and King, and some would be kept for the general public.

No photographs will be allowed in the courtroom, although a ruling has not yet been made on whether pictures will be permitted in the corridors.

Blonde Dancer Says Club Managers More Bother Than Cong

SAIGON (AP) — "I get more trouble from amorous club managers than I do from the Viet Cong," said the blonde dancer, one of the hundreds of entertainers criss-crossing the jungles of Vietnam these days.

The pop singers, guitarists, semistrippers and fire eaters haven't been scared away by the ambush attack last weekend which killed two teen-age members of the Brandt Perry act from Los Angeles.

"We've hung 'Have Act—Will Travel Anywhere' signs back on our baggage," said one agent. "Any GI club that wants us can have us, providing the price is reasonably right."

There are about 500 such clubs in American military bases scattered across South Vietnam from the Mekong Delta to the demilitarized zone. The farther away from Saigon, the better the price, which can run as high as $425 an hour for a top pop group.

The Army's commercial entertainment coordinator in Saigon keeps a careful watch on the conduct of both the entertainers and the club operators that book them.

Some performers say the worst part of playing Vietnam is the hours of waiting at dusty airports for military planes that never arrive, the dirt and the crude conditions at many clubs,

Terrorist Kills GI in Saigon

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — A terrorist shot and seriously wounded a U.S. soldier in downtown Saigon today amid reports that Viet Cong suicide commandos are expected to raid the South Vietnamese capital at any time.

Extra guards were posted at the U.S. Embassy and other key installations, and police were put on 100 per cent alert. The raids, if they come, likely would open the third Viet Cong offensive of the year against Saigon, an attack that has been expected for weeks.

The terrorist's victim was shot three times less than a mile from the presidential palace and taken to an Army hospital. His assailant escaped.

The assassination attempt was the first against an American reported in Saigon since the Viet Cong's second offensive against the capital in May.

U.S. sources said they had no confirmation of the South Vietnamese intelligence reports warning of commando raids. But American troops "are in a complete state of readiness to meet any enemy attacks" and have been for months, a spokesman said.

But Vietnamese police sources said guards were increased at the U.S. Embassy, where a Viet Cong suicide squad struck Jan. 30 at the beginning of the Tet offensive and held out for several hours in the embassy grounds. More government troops also were sent to bridges leading into the city and various checkpoints on Saigon's outskirts.

High-ranking Vietnamese officers said they had received reports the American Embassy would be attacked again and the national police headquarters would be another target.

An unconfirmed report said the Viet Cong had stolen an official U.S. car, apparently to fill it with explosives and use it to attack an American installation. U.S. Embassy security men armed with machine guns were seen at the Rex, one of the major U.S. officers' billets, checking American cars for explosives.

and the "thousand foot sponge" of Vietnamese government bureaucracy they bog down in when they try to extend their stay in the country or go to get exit visas.

But the risk of Viet Cong attack is real, particularly at night on lonely roads between bases when there is a temptation for an entertainment group to squeeze in just one more performance before a nearby club closes.

Brandt Perry and the Bubble Machine was ambushed after dark on the Saigon-Vung Tau road, a locale notorious for attacks and kidnapping. U.S. military sources also report a Filipino singer was killed in a Viet Cong ambush three weeks ago near Qui Nhon, a coastal resort.

The safety of visiting entertainers is their own responsibility. But because of the recent fatalities, U.S. military authorities called the 50 registered booking agents in Saigon together for a briefing on basic safety procedures.

The Army's Special Services Division ordered that all entertainment groups obtain road and security information from the local provost marshal before using a highway.

Groups were also advised that armed escorts will be provided when they leave clubs after dark.

Manhunt on for Killer in Bronx

By BOB MONROE
Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Police today pressed a massive manhunt for a Bronx gunman who killed three persons and wounded a fourth with a hail of fire from an automatic carbine.

Bronx Asst. Dist. Atty. Burton Roberts said a 15-state alarm was issued for one Bobby Rogers, alias Bobby Pugh, 31, who was superintendent of the building in front of which the shootings occurred Thursday evening.

The rapid-fire shooting brought more than 200 policemen armed with rifles, revolvers, shotguns and tear-gas guns and wearing bullet-proof vests to the dingy orange tenement into which the gunman fled.

As thousands of spectators swarmed to watch, police searched the five-story building but failed to find the man. They concluded he had escaped through a basement connecting three buildings on the block.

The dead were identified as Manuel Angel Figueroa, 19, Efrain Castro, 21, and Jose Rivera, 18. Roberts said preliminary evidence indicated the man being sought knew all three.

Police said Figueroa was dead on arrival at Lincoln Hospital and that Castro and Rivera died at the hospital.

Roberts described Rogers as a light-skinned Negro, about 5 feet 11, 160 pounds. He said the man had been honorably discharged from the Army in 1962 and took the superintendent's job on Dec. 1, 1967.

The shooting came just eight days after police killed a Central Park sniper, Angel Angelot, who had shot to death a young woman and wounded three other persons.

The violence began at about 6:27 p.m. when the gunman appeared near the stoop of the tenement on East 138th Street and started firing a .30-caliber automatic carbine which had been sawed off at both the stock and barrel police said.

The crowd began gathering as quickly as police.

29 Pastors 1st Baptist in Century

Twenty-nine persons have pastored the 100-year-old First Baptist Church of Hope which celebrates its centennial with a three-day program July 26, 27 and 28.

The church had its genesis under the supervision of the Rev. John Aaron who came here from Georgia and organized the church in July of 1868. It was known as "Siloam Baptist Church."

At that time it was located three miles west of Hope in a one-room frame building. The church was moved to Hope in 1876 and re-named First Baptist Church and located on the corner of North Walnut and East Avenue B.

The Rev. Aaron served as pastor until 1879 and was followed by M. D. Early and C. W. Callahan whose ministry continued until 1884.

Succeeding pastors who served from 1884 to 1903 were:

G. W. Reeves, J. W. Harris, D. J. Jamison, W. T. Box, J. B. Searcy, J. L. Thomas, Bro. Williams, T. G. Swafford, J. G. Henry, L. E. Barton and W. A. Freeman.

During the pastorate of Rev. A. H. Austry, 1903-1906, a new building was erected of concrete blocks at Third and Main streets. The church at that time had the largest auditorium in town and many public functions were held in the building.

Pastors serving from 1906 to 1944 included: W. T. Dorris, W. M. Bostick, T. D. Brown, A. Fox, Gaston Duncan, Lemuel Hall, F. W. Cornett, Charles T. Ricks, W. A. Bowden, Wallace Rogers and W. H. Hamilton.

Dr. S. A. Whitlow, one of four living pastors, served the next 12 years, and was followed in 1957 by Dr. John H. McClanahan. In 1963 he was succeeded by Dr. George Balentine who served until May of 1966.

The Rev. Gerald W. Trussell became pastor in January of 1967 and is the present and 29th pastor.
